MR. AND MRS. FREDERICK T. GAHWOLF were united at High Mass at the Catholic Church of the Nativity last Sunday morning. She is the former Mary Anne Nady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Nady of 710 Madrid ave.

More than 400 attended the ceremony which was distinguished by the excellent choral singing and solos. Rev. Father Leo J. Bauer officiated. The bride was lovely in ivory slipper satin, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and train. Her finger-tip veil cascaded from a pearl-beaded coronet and she carried white orchids and a prayer book. Other attendants were Tony Nady, U.S.N., and Larry Otto.

During the High Mass, Jack Hertert, baritone of Los Angeles, sang Gounod's Ave Maria and other solos, accompanied by the organ by Miss Mary Sealen. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents where a beautifully decorated four-tier cake was out. Mrs. John McIntier and other family friends assisted. Mrs. Nady received her guests in dusty pink with blue accessories, while Mrs. Gahwolf wore a blue ensemble with white accessories.

LUTHERAN LADIES

Leonard G. Jarrott, 20, of Redondo Beach, and Viola M. Lippert, 19, of Box 543, Torrance.

Takes Queen's Throne

MISS MARGARET MORT will be installed as honored queen of Job's Daughters, Torrance Bethel No. 50, tomorrow evening, May 22. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Mort of 1221 Coia ave. and a student at Torrance high school.

The open installation ceremony will be a colorful affair at the Torrance Woman's clubhouse. Miss Lois Jayne Allen will serve as installing honored queen. In addition to Miss Mort, the elective officers are Marilyn Moyer, senior princess; Beverly Whitney, junior princess; Enid Weis, guide, and Pat Whitney, marshal. Dancing will follow the ceremonies.

At the regular meeting Tuesday evening at C. E. Guild hall, Past-honored Queen Shirley Guttenfelder was escorted to the east and given Bethel honors, while Mrs. Sara Murray, a member of honor, was presented, and Mrs. Blandford Moyer, guardian, received Bethel honors. The dance held at the clubhouse last Friday evening was an outstanding success, according to the Bethel reporter.

Miss Lois Jayne Allen, retiring honored queen, was honored at an attractively appointed surprise party arranged last Wednesday evening by Miss Margaret Mort, incoming honored queen. More than 20 Job's Daughters attended the party which was given in the rumpus room of the J. E. Miller home. Games, music and dancing were the evening's diversion and refreshments were served at a late hour. Miss Allen was presented with many lovely gifts from the group.

RED CROSS UNIT
